

LIFE AFTER 70 IN IOWA (NOT REVIEWED)

The study assesses general lifestyle, including health, income, interaction, residence, attitudes, division of labor, and helping patterns.

Listing of study variables & measurement of variables

- age identification age identity, reference group comparisons
- general lifestyle
- total family income
- need for and use of community programs
- health
- income
- interaction patterns, number of outings
- marital status
- employment status
- intimate friendships
- residence and residential mobility
- contact with children
- attitudes, life satisfaction
- division of labour
- helping patterns